BREED THEATRE

"The Little Minister" in Three Reels Delightful Scotch Drama.

Nowhere is it possible to find a film that can equal the marvelous Vitaphone offering at the Breed today, entitled "The Little Minister." It consists of three reels of one thousand feet each, depicting the world-famous novel by J. M. Barrie, by the same title, and the fascinating part of "Babette" is played by no less a personage than Clara Kimball Young, the flashing beauty of the Vitaphone cast. The story is well known, and tells of the love of a young minister for a young girl who is thrown across his path in a most unconventional manner. To save her from possible injury and arrest, he declares she is his wife at her request, a fact which in Scotland, makes the marriage legal. The minister compels the girl to tell no one of the secret, other than those to whom the acknowledgment was made. True love conquers all, and the truth gradually leaks out, but the unrelenting strictness will not permit the marriage of their minister to a common girl, so the pair steal away and are married according to her own custom, and when they present themselves at the "Auld Kirk" for marriage there is no asterisk and she is received into the church. The work of this all-star cast is as good as the average dramatic work seen in this city, the photographic part is the same of excellence.

"Pirate Gold" a Biograph sea story and "A Business Brocader" with Alice Joyce and Tom Moore complete this artistic bill.

Big Girl Act at the Auditorium Monday.

Ethel Clifford and her romping girls and collies, a big act presented by Mr. and Mrs. Brady, has been secured for the first time in this city. The act consists of five pretty girls, all about the age of twenty, including Ethel Clifford, the noted comedienne and four handsome collies. The act runs about twenty or twenty-five minutes and five musical numbers are introduced much to the musical comedy style. Miss Clifford and her girls have been making quite a hit in some of the larger theatres hereabouts. A clever shadowgraph in Fargo, who will present a good comedy act on Monday's bill as well as Billy Kenny, the well known eccentric comedian, who will sing and dance his way into immediate popular favor. Among the pictures will be the Animated Weekly No. 44.

Arion Quartette Coming to the Davis.

Big features have been predominant at this theatre and next week's bill upholds the high standard already established. The Arion quartette, singers of no mean ability, head the bill, and no fewer than four comedians, including should miss this opportunity to hear them. Carter and Aleta, a team of clever entertainers doing their own creation of good action and timing. And Mme. Aleta's famous oriental whirling dance. The Josephs in "A Slave of the Gallies" present something entirely different from anything yet seen in this city, and the only attraction of its kind in the world. The feature photo play, "The Assassination of Paris, in three reels, is a thrilling picture of Bonnet and his gang who made so much trouble for the French authorities. This wonderful picture was taken under the most trying circumstances, and the Eclair camera men deserve all the credit. Another feature, "The Open Road, in two reels, portraying a beautiful drama where a son is willing to give his life blood to save his father. Two good Keystone comedies complete the show, making one of the best we have yet offered.
